

Getting to Vandon House from London City Airport

From London City Airport, there are two main options - taxi or train/underground

Taxi

1. A taxi to Vandon House will cost approximately £25.

Underground

2. Take the Docklands Light Railways (DLR) which is part of the London Underground. Take a train towards Bank or Lewisham then change at Canning Town to the Jubilee Line (west bound) to Westminster, then change to the District Line (west bound). Alight at St James's Park which is the next stop. It is advisable to use the Victoria Street exit. The cost for single journey is £4

Please note that St James's Park station has two exits.

Broadway (main exit)

On leaving the station Vandon House is a two minute walk. Turn left onto Petty France and walk about 250m, passing the Adam and Eve Pub and then turn left into Vandon Passage. At the end of the passage turn right and Vandon House is on the corner.

Victoria Street

On leaving the station, Vandon House is a one minute walk. Turn left onto Palmer Street, then right onto Caxton Street, then right onto Vandon Street. Vandon House is round the corner on the right.

This exit is open Monday to Friday from 0730 hours to 1930 hours.

