

Getting to Vandon House from Gatwick Airport

Follow the signs to the Gatwick Express train to Victoria Station. It leaves every 15 mins and takes half an hour to get there so is really easy! You may purchase the ticket on the train. From Victoria Station take a taxi to Vandon House or walk. It is about a 10 minute walk - directions are below. A taxi will cost about £5 - with luggage this will be the easiest option. If you take a taxi and the driver doesn't know Vandon Street, tell the driver it is a small street off of Buckingham Gate opposite the Crowne Plaza Hotel. Usually it is possible to get up to three or four people in a taxi if you are travelling with luggage.

To walk, come out of the station following the signs for the taxi rank. Stand with your back to the station with buses in front. Turn to right and one will see a set of traffic lights with a pedestrian crossing. Cross there and bear left at the other side. Cross again into the middle island and then cross again to the right so that you are walking under a covered walkway past Pret a Manger sandwich shop on your right. You will be on Victoria Street heading towards Westminster.

Walk past Westminster Cathedral on your right passing a number of shops on both sides of the street. At the next set of lights cross over so that you are walking past Pizza Hut and Books Etc in the same direction as before but on the other side of the road. You will also walk past Sainsbury's, the local supermarket. At the next set of traffic lights turn left onto Buckingham Gate and Vandon House is 200 meters up on the right hand side.